

All Anew: Bible Study #1

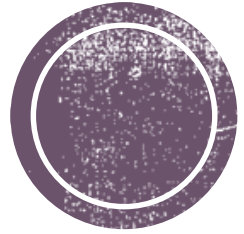

Presenter Kelly Fryer

You know you're asking for trouble,
right?

No new thing ever happens without it.

Then again, you are daughters of a known trouble maker.

Did you think I meant this guy?

Actually, I meant him.

Matthew 12:1-14

Jesus & the Pharisees should have been buds.

Mat 12:1-6

2

God is the boss of everything.

Mat 12:7-8

And God is on a mission.

Mat 12:9-12

4

Whatever gets in the way of that must be challenged.

Mat 12:13

That's when the trouble began.

Mat 12:14

Some folks out there think ya'll have been causing trouble.

They have no idea how much holy trouble you could be getting into.

Let me tell you what things look like where I live.

Bathroom legislation that puts trans-kids in danger

We are running out of water

100% occupancy guarantee for private prisons

Our leaders want to stripmine our national parks

Businesses can discriminate against LGBTQ folx

Fewer African Americans elected than any other state

The most anti-women laws in the nation

#4 in the U.S. for killings by law enforcement

Thousands of dead & missing migrants in our desert and in our detention centers

Micah

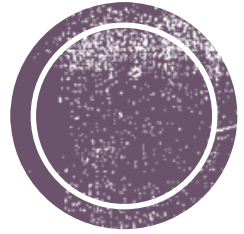

“With what shall I come before the Lord...shall I come before him with burnt offerings...with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn...?” No, Micah said. The Lord has told us what is good and what is required of us: “to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God” (6:6–8).

The time is now.

This planet has never needed holy troublemakers more.

“I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.”

– Mat 12:6

Nothing trumps God’s mission. Nothing.

Some things to think about:

- Where are you being called to stir up trouble, as part of God's mission to love, save and bless the world?
- Are you ready? If not, who can you ask for help and support?
- How can you help and support your fellow troublemakers back home?
