BOLD WOMEN'S DAY 2019

Bold Women's Day Challenge

Combine Bold Women's Day and International Correspondence Writing Month and what do you get? A month of letter writing devoted to bold women. It's a month-long effort of building authentic community using honest words. Here's how it works:

1. Following the suggestions of International Correspondence Writing Month, on each day of February 2019, write and mail (or hand-deliver) a card, letter, note or post card to a bold woman in your life. Share bold, honest words with women who are challenged or needing encouragement. Or share bold, honest words of thanksgiving for the role the women have played in your life of faith. Even a simple "thinking of you" note will do.
2. Keep a running list of the bold women you've written to. Take that list to worship on Bold Women's Day, February 24, 2019, and offer up the names of those bold women during the Litany of Thanksgiving that opens the Bold Women's Day liturgy.
