

Called Anew

A Thankoffering Service for Women of the ELCA 2019–2020

GATHERING

Entrance Song

Gracious Spirit, Heed Our Pleading (ELW 401)

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God, the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and our salvation.

Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gracious gift of baptism.

Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and mighty, you are the river of life, you are the everlasting wellspring, you are the fire of rebirth.

Glory to you for oceans and lakes, for rivers and streams, for (you may name local lakes and rivers here). Honor to you for cloud and rain, for dew and snow. Your waters are below us, around us, above us: our life is born in you. You are the fountain of resurrection.

Praise to you for your saving waters: Noah, his family, and the animals survive the flood. Hagar discovers your well. The Israelites escape through the sea, and they drink from your gushing rock. Naaman washes his leprosy away, and the Samaritan woman will never be thirsty again.

Praise to you for the water of baptism and for your Word that saves us in this sacrament. Breathe your Spirit into all who are gathered here and into all your beloved creation.

Illumine our days. Enliven our bones. Dry our tears. Wash away the sin that is within us, and drown the evil that surrounds us.

Satisfy all our thirst with your living water, Jesus Christ, our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Sprinkling Song

O Living Breath of God (ELW 407)

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Renewing God, pour out your power and come.

In the waters of baptism you claim us and call us to be your beloved children. May water be our ever-present sign that you ever make all things new. Refresh us with the good news of Christ's love and anoint us with your Holy Spirit, that we might know the fullness of the new life that you prepare for us in your kingdom. In the name of Christ, we pray.

Amen.

Looking for an alternative to a full worship service? Consider using a Thankoffering devotion during your circle meeting or other gathering where you collect the Thankoffering. Include prayers from this service or use "All About Thankofferings," a free online resource about the history of Thankofferings.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Called together into the Spirit's loving embrace, let us pray for the renewal of the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

We pray, holy God, for the unity of the church universal: Draw your church together into one great company of disciples, together following our teacher Jesus Christ into every walk of life, together serving in Christ's mission to the world, and together witnessing to your love wherever you send us.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

We pray, omnipotent God, for the well-being of creation: We give you thanks for transforming the chaotic waters of creation into the saving waters that nourish and sustain our earth. Renew us every day by your water and your word.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

We pray, righteous God, for peace and justice in the world: Lead the nations of the world away from the wilderness of sin and evil, and toward the light of love and peace. Give us a thirst for justice for all.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

We pray, compassionate God, for all in need: To those who are thirsty for love, for justice, for peace, for belonging, give the water of life. For those who are suffering or in pain, bring healing balm and peace.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

We pray, faithful God, for the renewal of all life: Refresh us with your living water and anoint us with your Holy Spirit. Embolden us with your promise and your presence.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

Receive our thanksgiving, eternal God, for all who have died in the faith: For the fervent witness and testimony of the woman at the well. May we know the fullness of the new life that you prepare for us in your kingdom.

Gracious Spirit, fashion us all anew.

(sing) Come, come, come Holy Spirit, come.

All these things, and whatever else you see that we need, we entrust to your care through Jesus Christ.

Amen.

SHARING OF THE PEACE

THANKOFFERING

You may introduce the offering with these words: As we make our Thankofferings today, we share in a tradition that goes back to the 1800s or even earlier. Then, when it seemed that there was not enough money to carry out the work of the church, the women would act together as “cent” or “mite” societies. Each woman would set aside offerings at home throughout the year in thanksgiving for blessings received. And on occasion, the women would come together as we do today, joining their offerings together to support ministry of many kinds.

When Women of the ELCA was formed in 1987, we committed to continue this tradition of giving in gratitude for blessings. Each year, in thousands of congregations, Thankofferings are given to support the life-changing ministries of Women of the ELCA. Together, we do more than we could ever do apart. In gratitude for all God has given to us, and with hope for all that is to come, let us now give our thankoffering.

Offering Song

Remember and Rejoice (ELW 454)

OFFERING PRAYER

God of grace, you have showered us with abundance and entrusted to us the ministries of Women of the ELCA. Help us to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world. Accept these gifts and our prayer that, nurtured by your Word, filled with your Spirit, and fed at your table, we may share with gladness all that you have shared with us, until all creation is satisfied.

Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

THE LORD’S PRAYER

COMMUNION

Communion Songs

Mothering God, You Gave Me Birth (ELW 735);
Lord, You Give the Great Commission (ELW 579)

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We thank you, gracious God, for loving all your family with a mother’s tender care, and feeding us in a way our hearts and souls can understand, with the saving body and blood of Jesus Christ. Renew and enliven us by your presence in this meal, that we may be your presence in the world, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

SENDING

In our wilderness, God gives us water from the rock. May you find hope and healing in God’s grace.

Amen.

Christ Jesus is the Messiah, the redeemer of the world. May you be renewed by his life-giving water and Word.

Amen.

The Holy Spirit renews the face of the earth. May you be renewed by God’s endless love.

Amen.

Holy Trinity + One God, bless you now and forever.

Amen.

Sending Song

We Are Called (ELW 720)

Called anew by God’s grace,
let us go forth in peace to share the good news.

Thanks be to God.

* Scripture readings may be selected from the Revised Common Lectionary for the day of the Thankoffering service.

 This response is the refrain of our opening hymn, “Gracious Spirit, Heed Our Pleading” (ELW 401).

 Omit if Thankoffering service does not include communion.

Tips for planning your Thankoffering service

Form a planning team

Invite women who are regular participants in Women of the ELCA activities, and women who are less involved. Invite women and girls of all ages, including young adults, teens and children. Work with the leaders of your congregation, including your pastor and music director.

Choose a date and time

The service can be held any time of year. In some congregations, the Thankoffering service is held during the weekly Sunday worship. Some host the service at another time. And you can have more than one Thankoffering service per year.

Plan the service

The Thankoffering order of service printed here is entirely optional. You may use all or part of it. For Scripture readings, planners may choose to create a Thankoffering service using the common lectionary (the weekly cycle of texts used by the ELCA) or may choose other Bible texts that evoke discipleship or stewardship. Lectionary citations can be found in the hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship, or on the ELCA website, www.elca.org. Decide whether to include communion.

Choose a preacher

Consider inviting a woman, lay or ordained, to preach.

Invite participation by all

It is appropriate to invite the entire congregation to participate in this service. You might invite the children's choir to sing or the youth group to serve as ushers. Through their involvement, they will learn more about Women of the ELCA. Consider inviting women from other ELCA congregations in your community, too.

Use our special envelopes and bulletin covers

Thankoffering envelopes are available in packets of 100 for just the cost of shipping. Packets of 50 bulletin covers are $4.95 plus shipping. Both (and much more) may be ordered online at welca.org/shop or by phone at 800-638-3522.

Celebrate Women of the ELCA

The Thankoffering service is a perfect time to celebrate Women of the ELCA and tell about your commitment to the churchwide women's organization. You might display items, photos and stories, or add personal testimonies to the sermon. During the weeks leading up to the service, invite women to speak about Women of the ELCA during worship or to lead a Sunday school lesson about Women of the ELCA. Display Gather magazine, program resources and other items that exemplify the ministries of Women of the ELCA.

Make Thankoffering containers together

Traditionally, people set aside their offerings throughout the year, using containers dedicated to Thankofferings. Consider bringing supplies (empty jars, boxes, labels, decorations) for participants to make their own Thankoffering containers before or after the service.

Plan how to receive the offering

Think creatively about how to receive the offering. For instance, you might invite people to place their Thankoffering envelopes or containers on the altar. This visually highlights an important part of the Thankoffering tradition—the daily practice of giving in gratitude for blessings and bringing those gifts together for the Thankoffering service.

Provide food and fellowship

Some units host breakfast before worship or a special coffee hour after. You might include a table for making Thankoffering containers and a display area for photos and other materials about Women of the ELCA.

Promote the service thoroughly

Write a bulletin insert or an article for the church's newsletter telling about Thankofferings and how they support ministry today. Send invitations and make announcements starting a few weeks in advance. Make sure to promote the service through social media, too. And afterward, use the same channels to thank people and tell them how well your Thankoffering service went!
