Thrivent provides financial advice, investments, insurance, banking, and generosity programs and solutions. Thrivent was formed in 2002 when two companies founded early in the 20th century—Lutheran Brotherhood and Aid Association for Lutherans—merged. In 2013 Thrivent members voted to extend its common bond to help all Christians achieve financial clarity.

1517 Media creates resources for Christian worship and faith formation, for academic study and professional development, and for individual edification and spiritual growth. 1517 Media has three publishing units: Fortress Press for academic and ministry publishing; Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse for church resources; and Beaming Books and Broadleaf Books for trade publishing. Like Women of the ELCA, 1517 Media is a separately-incorporated ministry of the ELCA.

Mission Investment Fund (MIF) is a financial ministry of the ELCA with faith and finance at its core. MIF provides investments for individuals, congregations, and social ministry organizations, and it offers loans for church and ministry building projects, land purchases, and refinancing. Like Women of the ELCA, MIF is a separately-incorporated ministry of the ELCA.
